

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of freedom of the press.

Sinclair is using the public airwaves to tell the truth about a presidential candidate that no one else has the courage to tell. Not only is this a proper use of the public airways it is an expression of freedom of the press that makes us different from almost all other countries.

John Kerry has been getting a pass from the liberal media and no one says a word. Sinclair decides to tell the truth and the left wing wacko's go crazy. This alone should tell us all that it is the right thing to do.

The American People have a right to know the truth, it is the right thing to do, it is America at it's best.
